

Code of Conduct

Tzuria mentors and students should demonstrate the following principles:

- Courtesy, which is founded in respect for all people, regardless of race, religion, age and status.
- Pride in oneself and one's appearance.
- Pride in his/her contribution and membership in the Tzuria centre.
- Awareness of his/her role and responsibilities in the Tzuria centre and the community.

Generally:

We expect Tzuria students to:

- Treat all mentors with respect and dignity.
- Be friendly and respectful to fellow students, mentors and visitors.
- Treat each other's belongings with the necessary respect.
- Take care of their personal belongings. Tzuria will not be held responsible for personal items that are stolen.
- Switch off cell phones and MP3-players during study time. Parents are welcome to contact the school in case of emergency.
- Not use crude or foul language.
- Be worthy of the trust placed in them.

Appearance and behaviour:

Tzuria students should:

- Arrive promptly in the mornings.
- Show pride in personal appearance, to dress neatly in jeans and a t-shirt, to keep hair clean and in neat styles. Girls must wear tops that cover their midriffs.
- Not use excessive make-up and jewelry.
- Treat their surroundings with respect - the furniture, equipment, the garden and the toilet facilities.

Breaks:

- Students are allowed to use the porch and garden area to relax.
- Students should bring healthy snacks for break to keep their energy levels constant.
- Please respect the environment inside and outside of the house and use the rubbish bins for any trash and chewing gum.
- Please respect each other with the use of the toilet facilities and leave these areas clean after use.
- No smoking is allowed inside or around the building.
- No use of alcohol allowed.
